

There should be open hearings on broadcast ownership. This is too important an issue to be determined with so little input from the public.